

Mini-Webinar

AN OVERVIEW OF THE MAIN CURRENT EU SUSTAINABILITY POLICIES

7 DECEMBER 2022 | 10:00 a.m.

Giorgia Miccoli & Spyros Perikleous | Project Managers | CSR Europe

Agenda:

10:00: Welcome & Introductory remarks

10:05: An overview of EU legislation:

- Corporate Sustainability Reporting Directive
- Corporate Sustainability Due Diligence Directive
- Country-by-Country Reporting Directive

10:35: Q & A

Description:

The European Commission (EC) has set out to transform Europe more sustainably. In an effort to support the European Green Deal, the EC has introduced a series of new EU Regulations that will influence and impact corporate sustainability compliance.

Among the forthcoming pieces of legislation that have already been published, there are three main policies that stand out:

1. Corporate Sustainability Reporting Directive – which concerns corporate sustainability reporting and replaces the existing Non-Financial Reporting Directive
2. Corporate Sustainability Due Diligence Directive – which concerns the impact of companies on the environment and supply chains
3. Country-by-Country Reporting Directive – which concerns the reporting of corporate taxes on a country-by-country basis

This session will provide participants with a summary of the three pieces of EU legislation; what impact they will have on companies; and how companies can better prepare for them. Therefore, participants can understand how the upcoming EU requirements might affect their companies and how to better futureproof their businesses.

Who should join:

- CSR/Sustainability professionals
- Procurement professionals
- Tax professionals
- Reporting professionals

BIOS

Giorgia Miccoli | Project Manager, CSR Europe

Giorgia Miccoli is a Project Manager on EU Affairs at CSR Europe, where she mainly works on business and human rights, sustainable finance and reporting. Before joining CSR Europe, she worked at the Centre for European Research at Queen Mary University of London and the Istituto Affari Internazionali (IAI) in Rome. Giorgia holds a Master's Degree in International Relations and Diplomatic Affairs from the University of Bologna. Her main interests are in Sustainability, International Development, European history, and pan-European security.

Spyros Perikleous | Project Manager, CSR Europe

Spyros Perikleous works as a Project Manager in Sustainability Management at CSR Europe and is part of the Sustainable Markets and Finance Team. He supports organisations in improving their sustainability performance by enhancing their sustainability reporting, sustainability strategy, and transparency. His main focus areas include ESG, responsible tax, and sustainable finance. Additionally, he supports companies in aligning with current and upcoming sustainability-related EU legislation. Spyros holds a Master of Science in Global Business & Sustainability from the Rotterdam School of Management, Erasmus University.

